

Bilston Church of England Primary School
Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Guidance

Our Vision

We will aspire through our Christian beliefs and attitudes for all children in our care to flourish both academically and personally; develop respect for others and to reach out to their local and global communities, so, 'hand in hand together with faith we will strive to achieve all things...

'I am able to do all things through him (Jesus) who strengthens me.'
Philippians 4:13

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control." Galatians 5:22-

23

At Bilston Church of England Primary School, we consider the pupils spiritual, moral, social and cultural development to be at the centre of our school ethos and the responsibility of the whole curriculum.

We strive to provide and maintain for our pupils an education that provides opportunities so that they can explore and develop their own values and beliefs, spiritual awareness, high standards of personal behaviour, a positive caring attitude towards other people, an understanding of their social and cultural traditions and an appreciation of the diversity and richness of other cultures.

We believe spiritual, moral, social and cultural development is promoted through the school ethos, the climate of the school, collective worship, all curriculum areas, behaviour code, extra-curricular and other activities. As far as we can, we link this to our core Christian values of

- Friendship
- Courage
- Trust

- Truthfulness
- Service
- Forgiveness
- Generosity
- Perseverance
- Justice
- Compassion
- Respect
- Thankfulness

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality in line with the Equality Act 2010.

Aims of SMSC

To encourage pupils to develop their own beliefs and values about life and religion

- To promote an appreciation of alternative individuals and shared beliefs.
- To develop appropriate personal and social behaviour in response to other cultures and environments.
- To develop an awareness of oneself in terms of thoughts, feelings, emotions, responsibilities and experiences and the development of self-respect.
- To recognise and value the worth of all individuals irrespective of gender, ethnicity, sexuality or religion thus developing a sense of community and the ability to build relationships with others.
- To promote curiosity in order to make sense of the world.

Responsibility for the policy and procedure

Role of the governing body

The governing body has:

- delegated powers and responsibilities to the Head teacher to ensure all school personnel and stakeholders are aware of and comply with this policy;
- responsibility for ensuring that the school complies with all equalities legislation;
- responsibility for ensuring this policy and all policies are maintained and updated regularly;
- responsibility for ensuring all policies are made available to parents;
- the responsibility of involving the School Council in the development, approval, implementation and review of this policy;
- responsibility for the effective implementation, monitoring and evaluation of this policy

Role of the Head teacher

The Head teacher:

- ensure all school personnel, students and parents are aware of and comply with this policy;
- work closely with the link governor and coordinator for SMSC;
- provide leadership and vision in respect of equality;
- provide guidance, support and training to all staff;
- monitor the effectiveness of this policy;
- annually report to the Governing Body on the success and development of this policy

- undertake risk assessments when required;
- review and monitor (SMSC audit);

Spiritual development

We see spiritual development as the way pupils acquire personal beliefs and values, especially on questions about religion, whether life has purpose, and basic personal and social behaviour.

We try to help pupils make sense of these questions through the curriculum, worship the school ethos and stilling / mindfulness opportunities within the curriculum We see spiritual development as an important element of a pupil's education and fundamental to other areas of learning.

We aim to provide learning opportunities that will enable pupils to:

- enhance their spiritual awareness through quiet / reflection spaces;
- experience stilling / mindfulness through the curriculum;
- sustain their self-esteem in their learning experience;
- develop their capacity for critical and independent thought;
- foster their emotional life and express their feelings;
- empathise with others;
- discuss their beliefs, feelings, values and responses to personal experiences;
- form and maintain worthwhile satisfying relationships that cherish themselves, and others, as uniquely and wonderfully form healthy relationships where they offer dignity and respect to others
- reflect on, consider and celebrate the wonders and mysteries of life

Moral development

We believe that pupils' moral development involves:

- acquiring an understanding of the difference between right and wrong and of moral conflict;
- a concern for others and the will to do what is right;
- reflecting on the consequences of their actions;
- learning forgiveness and reconciliation that encourages good mental health, and enables all to flourish and live well
- Developing knowledge, skills, understanding, qualities and attitudes in order for them to make responsible moral decisions and to act on them.

We aim to provide learning opportunities that will enable pupils to:

- tell the truth;
- keep promises (unless there is a safeguarding issue);
- respect the rights and property of others;
- act with consideration towards others;
- help those less fortunate than themselves;
- take personal responsibility for their actions;
- have self-discipline;
- understand the meaning of forgiveness and reconciliation
- understand the meaning of 'good disagreement'

Social development

We believe social development is concerned with the skills and personal qualities necessary for individuals to live and function effectively in society.

We aim to provide learning opportunities that will enable pupils to:

- develop the ability to be aspirational, resilient and persevere when things go wrong

- overcome barriers to their own learning and to make positive choices
- become courageous advocates for change in their local, national & global communities
- understand social justice and a concern for the disadvantaged and how they can challenge injustice
- connect the schools ethical and charitable activities to its vision and values ask the 'big questions' about life that develop their understanding of disadvantage, deprivation and the exploitation of the natural world
- engage in diocesan and other global companion/world links

Cultural development

We want our pupils to acquire:

- understanding of, respect for and the ability to celebrate difference and diversity within their school, local, national and global communities respect for their own culture and that of others;
- an interest in others' ways of doing things and a curiosity about differences

We want our pupils to develop:

- knowledge, skills, understanding, qualities and attitudes that they need to understand, appreciate and contribute to culture

We aim to provide learning opportunities that will enable pupils to:

- recognise the value and richness of cultural diversity in Britain, and how these influence individuals and society;
- develop an understanding of their social and cultural environment;

Organisation

We believe spiritual, moral, social and cultural development takes place across all curriculum areas and within activities that provide opportunities to allow pupils to:

- talk about personal experiences and feelings;
- express and clarify their own ideas and beliefs;
- speak about difficult events;
- share thoughts and feelings with other people;
- explore relationships with friends, family and others;
- consider others needs and behaviour;
- show empathy;
- develop self-esteem and a respect for others;
- develop a sense of belonging;
- develop the skills and attributes that enables them to develop socially, morally, spiritually and culturally

Role of school personnel

School personnel will:

- comply with all aspects of this policy;
- implement the school's equalities policy and schemes;
- report and deal with all incidents of discrimination;
- attend appropriate training sessions on equality;
- report any concerns they have on any aspect of the school community

Role of pupils

Pupils will:

- be aware of and comply with this policy;
- listen carefully to all instructions given by the teacher;
- ask for further help if they do not understand;
- treat others, their work and equipment with respect;

- support the school Code of Conduct (amend as appropriate) and guidance necessary to ensure the smooth running of the school;
- liaise with the school council;
