

Friday 15th March 2019

SCIENCE DAY

FORENSICS AND THE HUMAN BODY

Today the children have taken part in a whole school STEM day linked to forensic science. Each year group focused on a different part of the human body and complete a range of science based activities!

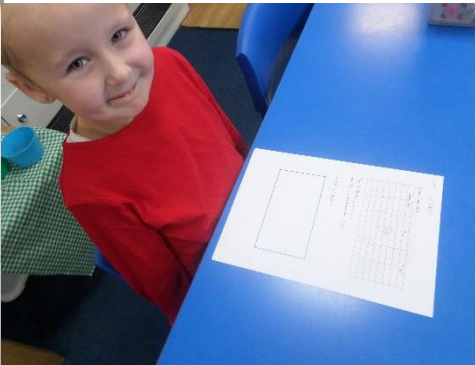

Reception.

Reception have been identifying their eye colour. They have also applied their maths skills to collect data and

Year 1

Year 1 have been collecting data about their shoes sizes and putting it into a tally chart. They have also been drawing and naming the body

Year 2

Year 2 have been investigating eyes! They have learnt about the function of the eyes and also created models of them exploring the

Year 3

Year 3 have become forensic detectives! They have worked as a team to identify the culprit! .They have also been exploring the lungs

Year 4

Year 4 have focused their learning around teeth! They have explored how different items dissolve in different

Year 5

Year 6

Year 6 have investigated the blood and discussed the importance of giving blood. They have also applied their forensic skills works. They have also created forensic logos, transforming

